SUMMER SPECIAL

"Caption really connects the world of comics to the wider arts community. It's a down-to-earth event that says that comics should be a part of everyone's reading experience."
—Paul Cornell
(Doctor Who, Action Comics)

Confirmed guests (so far)
Darryl Cunningham
(Psychiatric Tales)
Nicola Streeten
(Billy, Me and You)

The UK's friendliest comic book event takes place 18&19 August 2012 at the East Oxford Community Centre. Caption is a unique, friendly event that encourages small press creators, manga artists, comic-book readers and professionals to mingle and discuss their work. The event features a communal pop-up shop to sell your work as well as talks, workshops and an exhibition of auctionable artwork.
